Before beginning her legal career, Julia Hoffmann served in the German Navy. She then studied law at the University of Hamburg.

Julia Hoffmann completed her legal traineeship with a focus on “State and Administration” at the Higher Regional Court of Schleswig-Holstein. During her traineeship and as a research associate at a mid-sized law firm in Schleswig-Holstein specializing in construction law, Julia Hoffmann primarily handled issues in private and public construction law.

Since August 2022, Julia Hoffmann has been part of the Leinemann Partner Law Firm team in Hamburg, advising clients primarily in private construction law and public planning law.

Julia Hoffmann is a member of the Hanseatic Bar Association.
