Marisa-Therese Golz studied law at the University of Potsdam. In May 2017, she successfully completed her legal clerkship at the Oberlandesgericht Brandenburg by passing the second state examination in law.

During her legal clerkship, Marisa-Therese Golz attended a degree programme in corporate and tax law at the University of Potsdam and graduated with a Master of Laws (LL.M) in October 2017.

Marisa-Therese Golz was admitted to the bar in January 2018 and is a member of the Berlin Bar Association. Initially, she worked in the field of corporate law for a medium-sized commercial law firm, as well as for a boutique law firm specialising in real estate law with an associated notary's office.

Marisa-Therese Golz joined Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte in Berlin at the beginning of 2022 and advises clients primarily on public procurement law. She supports clients and bidders in tenders and represents them in review proceedings. She also works in the field of private construction law.
