After completing his training as a bank clerk, Yannic Linnemann studied law in Münster, specialising in corporate law. Afterwards he stayed in the same field, working as a research assistant in a large commercial law firm in the Ruhr area.

Yannic Linnemann completed his legal clerkship with stages in a chamber for construction matters at the regional court and a medium-sized law firm specialising in construction law in Münster as well as in an international commercial law firm in Berlin.

Since his admission to the bar in August 2022, Yannic Linnemann has joined the Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte team in Berlin and advises our clients primarily on private construction and architectural law.

Yannic Linnemann is a member of the Berlin Bar Association.
